Bareith, Auguſt 13, N. S.

THIS Morning her Royal Highneſs the Margravine, lately returned from Carlsbadt, ſet out with a ſmall Retinue for the Court of Berlin.

Nuremberg, Aug. 17, N. S. Baron Widman, and Mr. Burriſh, the Imperial and Britiſh Miniſters accredited to the Circle of Franconia, returned hither on the 14th from Bareith, and are preparing to proceed in a few Days to the Court of Anſpach.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 19. On the 16th the Queen of Denmark went to the Chapel Royal for the firſt Time ſince her Lying-in, and appeared afterwards in the Circle. It is expected that ſome conſiderable Promotions will be made before the Coronation; and it is ſaid, that five or ſix blue Ribbons will be then beſtowed among the Miniſters of the Council and the Generals. We had Yeſterday a very melancholly Account from a Place called Ringſted, eight Daniſh Miles from hence on the Road to Holſtein, where, two Days before, a terrible Fire broke out, and burnt with ſuch Violence, the Wind blowing hard at the ſame Time, that in a few Hours almoſt the whole Town was laid in Aſhes. The Church and the Convent, together with about 20 poor Houſes, are all the Buildings that have eſcaped the Flames. The Aſiatick Company has reſolved to ſend out this Year two Ships to Tranquabar, and two to Canton.

Florence, Auguſt 15, N. S. His Britannick Majeſty's Ships of War continue to intercept a great Number of ſmall Veſſels loaden with Proviſions for Genoa. Two Gallies of that Republick are detained at Leghorn, not daring to venture out. They were on their Departure, but received Orders by two Expreſſes from Genoa, not to leave Leghorn till further Notice.

Turin, Aug. 20, N. S. Letters from Vado Bay of the 5th Inſtant bring an Account, that Henry Medley, Eſq; Vice-Admiral of the Blue Squadron of his Britannick Majeſty's Fleet, died that Morning of a Fever, after nine or ten Days Illneſs, much regretted.

Bergen-op-Zoom, Aug. 29, N. S. A Sally was made Yeſterday about One o'Clock, by which we deſtroyed ſome ſmall Part of the Enemies Approaches, and killed them about a Dozen Men. The Fire was extreme hot for moſt Part of laſt Night, by which we loſt ſeveral of our People.

Bergen-op-Zoom, Aug. 30, N. S. The French ſprung a Mine laſt Night to ruin the Remains of the Lunette of Zealand. It is ſuppoſed they intend to erect a Battery of five Guns to batter the Ravelin Dadem. A Deſerter reports, that their Companies are diminiſhed from 40 to 18 and 20 Men.

Hague, Sept. 1, N. S. The Earl of Sandwich ſet out Yeſterday Morning for the Army. General Smiſſaert was carried off a few Days ago, in Zealand, by a malignant Fever: By his Death, which is greatly lamented, the Government of Boiſleduc is become vacant, and is ſaid to be intended for General Cronſtrom. The French have not made of late any Progreſs in their Attacks againſt Bergen-op-Zoom; they ſeem to be quite at a Stand, at leaſt above-Ground, and our Miners are hard at Work to defeat their Attempts under-Ground. The Body of Troops under the Command of General Chanclos, arrived at Oudenboſch the Night before laſt; and the Letters received this Day from Bergen-op-Zoom ſay, that General Chanclos had been there, and had found the Town in a much better State of Defence than he expected.

Rotterdam, Sept. 1, N. S. Advices from Bergen-op-Zoom continue very favourable: The [Price Two-pence.]

The French do not advance ſo much as they give out; and although they have ruined Part of the Gallery, they have not yet attempted to come into the Foſſe. Although we had abandoned the Lunette of Zealand, they would not venture to lodge themſelves in it, but by Countermining they ruined it entirely. Their chief Efforts are now againſt the Lunette of Utrecht. Their Attack of Kyk en de Pot is only thought to be a Feint to cover their making a ſecond and third Parallel of Circumvallation and Contravallation. Advices from Bruſſels do not fix the Day of the French King's Departure from the Army.

Whitehall, Auguſt 25.

The King has been pleaſed to order a Congé d'Elire to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Peterborough, impowering them to elect a Biſhop of that See, the ſame being void by the Death of Doctor Robert Clavering, late Biſhop thereof; and likewiſe a Letter, recommending unto the ſaid Dean and Chapter, John Thomas, Doctor in Divinity, one of his Majeſty's Chaplains in Ordinary, and Canon Reſidentiary of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, to be by them elected Biſhop of the ſaid See of Peterborough.
